MTAA Super and MetLife Continues Partnership

SYDNEY, 12th April 2011 – MTAA Super, the national industry-based superannuation fund for the motor trades and allied industries has announced its continued commitment to its partnership with current insurer, MetLife Insurance Limited (MetLife).

“MTAA Super is very pleased that in a very competitive market tender, MetLife’s offering remains at the cutting edge” said Mr Michael Delaney, Chief Executive Officer of MTAA Super. “It means that our members will not only benefit from improved pricing and insurance coverage but from the advances in technology solutions and administration processes MetLife has developed”, Mr Delaney added.

‘Our partnership has grown from strength to strength with MetLife’s forward thinking, technological and other innovative solutions” he added.

MetLife’s capabilities include online administration tools that provide real time results, stream-lining processes which enable quick turnaround times for managing claims and applications to increasing member engagement.

Over the next few months, plans are in place to roll out other parts of MetLife’s eToolKit such as eApply and eClaims which help improve member experience.

"We are delighted to continue our partnership with MTAA Super. It confirms our commitment to provide ongoing member engagement and deliver best in class technology solutions, facilitating the way MTAA Super members interact with us", said Marc Lieberman, Chief Executive Officer of MetLife.
