METLIFE AUSTRALIA APPOINTS GREG BRENNAN CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

SYDNEY, 31 January 2011 – MetLife Insurance Limited in Australia (MetLife) has announced that Gregory J. Brennan has been appointed Chief Financial Officer, effective immediately. Greg replaces Peter Erlandsen who has left the firm.

Greg brings to MetLife nearly 30 years of financial, business and product management experience in the life and general insurance industry. Most recently Greg was Group Head of Insurance in the Consumer Banking area of Standard Chartered Bank in Singapore. He has held various CFO, Chief Actuary and related financial management roles at Hartford Life International, various ING operations in Asia Pacific, as well as with Tower and Hanover in the Australia/New Zealand marketplace.

“Greg’s vast experience in insurance finance, risk, and capital management, along with his proven business and strategic leadership skills strengthen the management team for us here in Australia while allowing us to focus on the extensive growth opportunities we have with our superannuation fund, corporate and direct insurance customer bases,” said Marc Lieberman, Managing Director and CEO of MetLife Insurance Limited in Australia.
